PUBLIC DISCUSSION

Jason Doetzer and his wife lease the gun club at 920 King Road. Jason spoke pertaining to how he met with the zoning officer Chief Mark Dorsey on the regulations of the back stops, and he shared a letter with the Supervisors and the public on the activities up till now of the Club. Informed the Supervisors and the public of the compliances of the backstops and the regulation set by the NRA and how the gun club was meeting these regulations. He also commented on the noise and how it is being controlled with topography.

Mark Kramer – 238 Robinson Road. Discussed the zoning law in conjunction with the Gun Club. He also spoke on the past issues that the Gun Club had when it was under different ownership.

Gretchen Moore discussed the procedure it takes to dispute the zoning in accordance with the Gun Club.

Judi Kramer – 238 Robinson Road. Discussed the previous owner and that she is against the Gun Club/Rifle range.

Jason Doetzer - Replied to the comments made by Mark and Judi Kramer

Elizabeth Borovich – 146 Robinson Church Road. Spoke on the property damage due to the gun club under the old owner.

Supervisor Kendall discussed why and when the zoning was changed.

Dennis Glass. – 305 Robinson Church Road. The weight limit on Robinson Church Road. Asked about changing the weight limit on Robinson Church Road. Kendal explained that it would take having an engineering study in order to change zoning on a road.
